

YOUNG ADULT GRANT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Y Social Impact Center is partnering with the Raikes Foundation to offer an amazing opportunity for young adults to join a grant committee! Participants will build an understanding of philanthropy, grant proposals, and social justice while working together to disburse a sizeable amount of funding to local non-profits working to address youth homelessness.

- » Young adults age 18–25 who have experienced or are currently experiencing housing instability are eligible to apply!
- » Participants are paid $20/hr. Committee meetings are 2 hours long, and occur once every other week.
- » This is an amazing opportunity to learn valuable skills and boost your resume!
- » There are a limited number of seats!
