

FREE WALK-IN LEGAL HELP for KING COUNTY TENANTS

TACOMAPROBONO COMMUNITY LAWYERS HOUSING JUSTICE PROJECT

TENANTS' RIGHTS LEGAL CLINICS

Tenants' Rights Legal Clinics offer free legal advice, resources, information, intake & screening and system navigation on a walk-in basis to low-income King County residents facing landlord-tenant issues.

Tenants will meet with a Housing Justice Project attorney one-on-one for a brief consult to discuss issues with your landlord including disputes over issues such as lockouts, move-out and move-in issues, discrimination, habitability and more.

IF YOU HAVE BEEN SERVED WITH A SUMMONS & COMPLAINT FOR UNLAWFUL DETAINER (EVICTION) DO NOT COME TO THESE CLINICS, PLEASE ATTEND YOUR SHOW CAUSE HEARING TO BE SCREENED FOR POSSIBLE REPRESENTATION.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

King County tenants at or below 200% of the federal poverty level or receiving public benefits, may walk in to these clinics. All attendees are screened for financial eligibility, conflicts and program capacity. All services are free.

LEGAL AID POP-UPS

Do you have a question about a civil legal issue -- housing, family law, wills, consumer issues, general legal problems, etc.?

Legal Aid Pop-Ups are here for you. These are not staffed by attorneys and cannot offer legal advice but do provide free legal information, resources and system navigation on a walk-in basis at various locations around King County.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

All King County residents regardless of income who have questions about a civil legal issue may walk in to Legal Aid Pop-ups. All services are first-come, first-served and free.
