

MARITIME SHIPYARD WELDING

Complete the interest form to be invited to the next site visit

Now Recruiting - Fall 2026

Step into a high-wage career

Join a high-demand trade and train toward becoming a skilled, certified welding technician in just six months! This training program prepares you to join the local maritime industry with hands-on experience, professional support, and real opportunities for advancement.

Program Support While You Train

Location Harbor Island Training Center at Vigor Industrial
In-person 1731 13th Ave SW, Seattle, WA 98134

Dates Courses and training for six months beginning September 28, 2026.

Benefits

- Six months of education and training
- Monthly financial stipend
- Career navigation and social services support (transportation assistance, personal financial guidance, etc.)

You can go from classroom to shipyard in just six months!

Entry level
shipyard roles
can start around $34/hr

Shipyard welding program entry requirements include:

- General proficiency in college-level math and English
- Admittance into South Seattle College
- Completion of the interest form below

This program will provide monthly financial incentives and dedicated career planning and networking support in partnership with the Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County (WDC), Port of Seattle, and South Seattle College. Seats are limited, so share your interest today!

SCAN ME

Start Here

 Fill out this form to show your interest using the QR code or at tinyurl.com/Seattle-Welding-Fall-2026

 Questions? Contact Gyanendra Subba at gsubba@seakingwdc.org

